SOURCE

1. The Catholic Church is ready to intervene with the State in favor of the request of the "Volksdeutsche" to be exempted from deportation, as well as for these who, during the German occupation, had their name entered into the so-called "Deutschenliste". It is ready to demand of the Polish government that these groups be accorded the same rights as the "Congress" Poles, provided that they prove themselves fervent Catholics, or provided, in case they should be Protestants, they embrace the Catholic faith. Special consideration will be given to the request of specialized workers of precision tools and specialists in the construction and metal industry.
